Well Adapted for Its Work.
Speaking of necks, could you imagine one better suited to the habits of its owner than that of the hog? The hog roots in the ground for its food—in the wild state. Its neck must be thick and stout for shoving the snout into the earth. So the neck of the hog is built exactly as it should be built for enabling the animal to carry its snout along the ground in picking up or rooting up its food supply.

CITY OF NEWPORT

Zephria Vanier died at his home on Maple street, East Side, Monday evening at 8:30. Mr. Vanier was one of Newport's oldest citizens. He was 83 years of age and had been a resident of Newport for 43 years. He leaves a wife and five sons and three daughters. The funeral services will be held Thursday morning at 8:30 and the burial will be in the Catholic cemetery.

Joe Dagnais, formerly of Newport, died Sunday, Sept. 22, at New Bedford, Mass. The body was brought to Newport for burial. Services were held Monday morning at 8:30 and the burial was in the Catholic cemetery. Mr. Dagnais was 32 years of age.

Leon R. Duvall, son of Charles Duvall, aged 1 year, 8 months, 29 days, died Tuesday evening. The funeral services will be held at the house Thursday at 1:30, the burial being at Newport Center.

Mrs. Hiram Rowe, who lives on Railroad street, Island Pond, died Monday night from pneumonia. Mrs. Rowe was 32 years old. The funeral services will be held at the house Wednesday at 2 o'clock.

The body of Hiram Labounty, who died in Lowell, Mass., was brought to Newport Sunday morning for burial. The funeral services were held Monday morning at 10:40 o'clock. The burial was in the Catholic cemetery. Mr. Labounty was 32 years, 8 months and 10 days old.

The local committee on the sale of bonds in Newport reported that the hands on the clock had reached the $91,000 mark on Monday evening.

The first meeting of Lake Side chapter, No. 27, Eastern Star, will be held on Monday evening. A lunch will be served after the meeting. A small fee of 10 cents will be charged, to go into the flower fund.

Charles John Clogston of Barton holds No. 322, the first number drawn by President Wilson from the glass lottery bowl. Blindfolded, the president groped into the great glass lottery bowl and drew out one of 17,000 capsules. It contained a slip numbered 322, thus giving men holding that serial number first place in their respective classes after registrants already classified under previous registrations. Mr. Clogston is 33 years old, a moulder by trade, and is employed at the J. W. Murkland machine shop in Barton. Mr. and Mrs. Clogston live on Cleveland avenue, Barton.

The Red Cross tea rooms are in charge of the following committee this week: Mrs. H. F. Hamilton, chairman; assisted by Mrs. Harold Young, Mrs. George Gilchrist and Mrs. C. P. Firestone.

Drive for Clothes for Belgians Big Success

The local Red Cross drive for old clothes for the Belgians last Wednesday was a big success. Newport responded to the call most generously, the call was for 400 pounds and when the drive ended and the cases all packed for shipment 2600 pounds were shipped by freight and a box from the Red Cross rooms that was shipped by express brought it up to 3000 pounds. This is going over the top some.

The annual district meeting of the Rebekah lodges, I. O. O. F., in District No. 5, which was to have been held at Derby October 3, has been indefinitely postponed on account of the prevailing distemper.

Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Prouty and children left for Jackson, Que., this morning by auto. They will be away about two weeks.

Mrs. Maggie Townsend of Montreal, who has been visiting friends in town for a week, has returned home. Miss Alma Astbury accompanied her to Montreal for a two weeks' vacation from her duties at the New England Telephone office.

The British Officer.
A young American soldier, writing home to his mother, and referring to the British officer, remarked that he always thought of him as a monocular dandy, too effeminate for hard usage; but never again. He found him cool, resourceful, and unaffected in danger, taking his daily hazardous duties as a matter of course, and setting an example to his men, and a solicitude for their welfare, that inspired the utmost confidence in them. It is no new picture, but fittingly portrays his character, for generations past.—Toronto Mail and Empire.

Long Undersea Tunnel Planned.
Plans for a railway tunnel, costing approximately $7,000,000, and extending more than seventeen thousand feet under the sea for about one-fourth of its length, have been made in Japan. The bore will pass beneath the Miji straits, connecting Shimoda and Dai-ri, making possible a junction with the railway trunk line of Kishu. It is estimated that five years will be required to complete the project.

China May Restore Canals.
China, in its pressing need for transportation facilities, is considering the restoration of its old-time system of canals, of which there were at one time 60,000 miles within the empire. Centuries before the Christian era the great rivers of the celestial empire were diverted from their natural courses to form these ancient waterways.

POULTRY KEEPING IN BACK YARDS

Poultry keeping, although a comparatively simple undertaking, will be successful in direct proportion to the study and labor which are expended upon it. There is an abundance of good material on the subject, but Backyard Poultry Keeping (Farmers' Bulletin 889), a publication of the United States department of agriculture, contains all the general directions needed to make a start. It tells how to overcome the objections to keeping poultry in the city, what kinds of fowls to keep, the size of the flock computed according to the size of the back yard, gives definite instructions as to the best kinds of chicken houses to build, with bill of materials for same, directions as to feeding the fowls, hatching and raising chicks, prevention of diseases and many other matters essential to the success of the undertaking. Another helpful bulletin of a general character is Hints to Poultry Raisers (Farmers' Bulletin 528). This gives a great deal of useful and authoritative information within a very small compass.

WOULD SAVE IRISH FARMS

Reconstruction Committee Plans to Get Land Into the Hands of Skilled Cultivators.

Dublin.—Irish farmers have been started by a proposal made by the reconstruction committee that the government purchase some of the Irish farms which are not being cultivated and sell them to competent cultivators or employ skillful and progressive farmers to cultivate them. Sir Horace Plunkett, a member of a subcommittee, has reported that some Irish farms are occupied by incompetent or incapable men, who will not improve their methods under instructions or if punished by penalties. The land deteriorates and is wasted for several years, while the occupant grows poorer and poorer and generally is crushed by his creditors.

SAYS WIFE IS PRO-GERMAN

Man Makes Serious Charges Against Mate Who Sues Him for Non-Support.

Oyster Bay, N. Y.—Charging his wife with pro-Germanism when she caused his arrest on the ground of non-support, Benjamin Burnham declared in court that she had destroyed four American flags, a picture of Washington and one of Lafayette and had exclaimed to him:

"The crown prince ought to be walking up Broadway, dragging President Wilson behind him."

Burnham said that his wife took their children to the woods so they would not see the patriotic parade on July 4. He promised the court he would support his family.

MARINE APPLICANT IS LED TO WRITE SONG

St. Louis.—Harold Holland of this city went down to marine recruiting headquarters here and applied for enlistment. He was accepted, but his draft board refused to release him. While at the recruiting station he was so impressed with the marines that he wrote words and music of a song entitled, "You Great Big Handsome Marine." The song has been printed and now is sung daily at the marine recruiting rallies.

Thumb Cut Off by Chain.

Oil City, Pa.—Mrs. Francis Babcock, seventy-eight, lost a thumb in an odd accident. She was tying a cow with a chain when the animal suddenly jerked, catching the woman's thumb in a loop of the chain and severing it as cleanly as if a knife had been used.

Water and Air.

Water in contact with the air absorbs its carbonic acid in a decidedly practical degree. In densely populated districts this is of considerable importance. The difference is perceptible to the sense after a long drought, as the common expression "refreshing showers" indicates.

Sleep Sweetly

Coffee, tea and some other drinks when taken at the evening meal tend to keep some people awake.

One of the merits of POSTUM is that it never affects nerves or heart.

In fact one can drink as much Postum as he pleases just before bedtime and no ill results follow, for Postum is pure and absolutely free from caffeine or any other harmful drug or substance.

Postum comes in two forms; Postum Cereal, which must be boiled, and Instant Postum, made in the cup in a moment. They are equally delicious and the cost per cup is about the same.
